

BROADWAY
VIRTUAL

A PREMIER BROADWAY CHARITY EVENT

December 1, 2020

INTRODUCTION

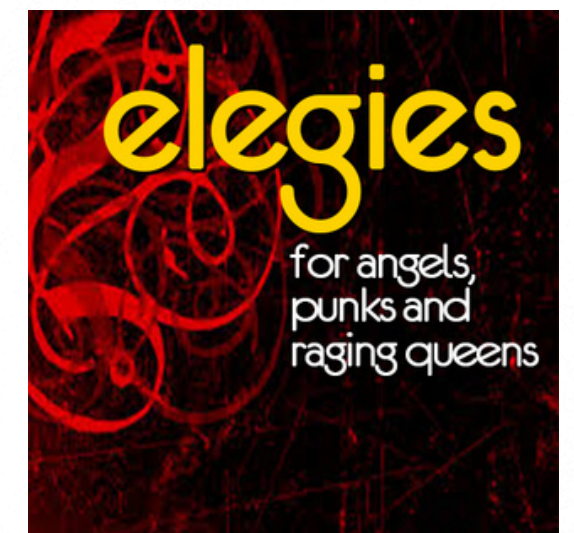

Thank you for your interest in this exclusive opportunity underscoring the commitment of Broadway to its community in the fight against AIDS.

Broadway Virtual will present in partnership with Broadway Cares/EQUITY Fights AIDS an online performance of Elegies for Angels, Punks and Raging Queens directed its creator Bill Russell, Tony-nominated writer and lyricist.

Inspired by the 1985 NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt, Elegies celebrates through emotive songs and monologues the lives of individuals taken from us by AIDS/HIV.

This star-studded performance will feature Broadway greats which include Richard Chamberlain, Fran Drescher, Lena Hall, and more. The event streams free on Broadway On Demand on December 1st, World AIDS Day as given by the World Health Organization.

This comes at an opportune time with theaters shutdown and lives this time devastated by the current pandemic. Broadway Virtual's touching production of Elegies memorializes the lives lost from both AIDS/HIV and COVID-19 while generating support towards the initiatives of Broadway Cares/EQUITY Fights AIDS.
